LONG-RANGE SHOOT
MAY 6, 2011

Enjoy a full day of long range shooting at the Crown Creek Western Town & Saloon. Located 40 miles north of Colville, WA (See map included in Shooter's Packet).

We will be offering three (3) shoots. You may shoot one, two, or all three.

FIRST SHOOT: Pistol caliber rifle long range shoot consists of three targets; one each @ 50 yards, @ 100 yards, and @ 150 yards. Five shots @ each target. Lead bullets only, any powder.

SECOND SHOOT: Rifle caliber lever action long range shoot consists of three targets: one each @ 100 yards off-hand, @ 150 yards shot from cross sticks, and @ 200 yards shot from cross sticks. Five shots @ each target. Rifles must be lever action, of a type and caliber that would have been available and in common use before 1900; i.e., Winchester '76, '86, '94, '95, or similar Marlins, Savage 99's, etc. Lead bullets only, any powder, no scopes. Bring your cross sticks, shoot sitting or prone.

THIRD SHOOT: Buffalo Rifle Gong shoot consists of three targets: one each @ 250 yards, @ 435 yards, and @ 525 yards. Five shots @ each target for score. All shooting from cross sticks. Rifles must be of a type used during the buffalo hunts of the 1870's. (Sharps, Rolling Blocks, Trapdoors, Ballards, etc). Lead bullets only, any safe powder charge, black or smokeless.

Lunch and refreshments will be available at the Crown Creek Saloon (Located @ Range).

Time permitting; there will be an off-hand shoot at the Quigley Bucket @ 435 yards for a special award. This is a 3-shot match.

Also, time permitting, there will be a long range shooting video presented in the Town Theater.
